

SEBASTIAN 48" ROUND POLISOUL TOP NO UMBRELLA HOLE

The Sebastian Collection is full of choices for any size outdoor living space. The sophisticated charm and ultimate comfort sets this set as an entertaining collection.

This series is often mistaken for natural wicker because the construction, rich detail and finishes are handcrafted with great care and attention. The frames and synthetic woven wicker is all-weather ready and accented with Polisoul™ timber legs that can withstand the elements and look great for years. This round dining table top is made out of the most durable and one of a kind Polisoul™ faux wood. It is able to withstand any conditions the outdoors has to offer and even provides a low maintenance option for all installations from residential to commercial
